

I feel it is imperative that you NOT change the current ownership policy for media ownership. I am totally opposed to this measure. Debate, dialogue, discussion and diversity are the foundations of our democracy, and the source of our strength as a nation. It is imperative our media remain diverse as well.